Once upon a time, a very lonely princess lived in an abandoned castle. Her parents died the year before and with Christmas on the way, she felt very sad and companionless. Luckily, she had an uncle who lived a few miles away. To cheer her up, he brought the young girl food for his early visit to the kingdom. The princess was delighted to see the old man and set up the table so they could enjoy their meal together. They talked for a few hours and it filled princess with Happiness!
