MORNING CHALLENGE

Read the text and complete the chart. As you read, you may highlight the words that gives you clues to WHERE the story takes place. If you want to raise the bar and need more space, you may write on the back.

Once upon a time, a young and brave man was traveling from one kingdom to the other in search of the perfect dragon to help him fight the toughest enemies. One sunny day, as he was approaching the Kingdom of Nowhere, he heard a sharp noise. He turned around, and through the high trees, he noticed a very long tail, hanging from a branch. He took a step back and was able to witness the most impressive, yet beautiful creature he had ever seen.
