

READING CIRCLE booklet

YOU MUST PREPARE FOR YOUR READING CIRCLE!

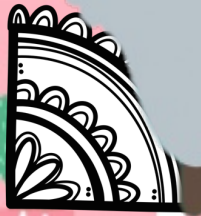

Every Thursday, for the rest of the month, you will have a reading circle meeting. You will have to prepare accordingly. In the next pages, you will have to complete the activities BEFORE the meeting.

MEETING CIRCLE #1 _____

MEETING CIRCLE #2 _____

MEETING CIRCLE #3 _____

MEETING PREPARATION # 1

Point of view

After reading the first part of the novel, you probably understand who is the narrator. Make sure to use the theory from your notebook to help you complete the activity. Don't forget to use complete sentences as evidence of text.

Mood

After reading the first part of the novel, you probably understand the mood of the story. Describe it and use two evidence of text to explain it.

MEETING PREPARATION # 1

Setting

After reading the first part of the novel, you probably understand the general setting. Make sure when you complete the chart, you use quotes of the book.

	The text says	The picture says	Conclusion
WHEN WHERE

MEETING PREPARATION # 1

Questions

Write 5 interesting questions about the pages you read. Your questions must be opinion questions that will definitely prompt discussion within your group.

You must also discuss the other activities you complete (P.O.V., mood and setting).

During the reading circle, in turn, you will ask each other your questions, which you will all have to answer.

You will record the entire conversation and, using iMovie, you will make a short montage of your best sequences during the discussion.

Your montage should be no longer than 5 minutes and a minimum of 3 minutes.

MEETING PREPARATION # 1

Questions

1

2

3

4

5

MEETING PREPARATION # 2

Character analysis

After reading the second part of the book, choose two characters from your story and analyze their personalities. Find two traits for each character and justify your answer with evidence from the text. Write the page number.

Character # 1

Character # 2

MEETING PREPARATION # 2

Story elements

After reading the second part of the book, write down the important story elements from the novel. Make sure to use the theory in your document in case you do not properly understand the concept.

What is the exposition?

What is the rising action?

What is the climax?

MEETING PREPARATION # 2

Questions

Write 5 interesting questions about the pages you read. Your questions must be opinion questions that will definitely prompt discussion within your group.

You must also discuss the other activities you complete (character traits analysis and the story elements).

During the reading circle, in turn, you will ask each other your questions, which you will all have to answer.

You will record the entire conversation and, using iMovie, you will make a short montage of your best sequences during the discussion.

Your montage should be no longer than 5 minutes and a minimum of 3 minutes.

MEETING PREPARATION # 2

Questions

1

2

3

4

5

MEETING PREPARATION # 3

Character tree

After reading the last part of the book, write down all the characters from the novel. Make sure to write as well their roles in the story. For example, you can write that she is a mother or a friend. You can use the characters tree of Bats Past Midnight as an example.

MEETING PREPARATION # 3

Story elements

After reading the last part of the book, write down the important story elements from the novel. Make sure to use the theory in your document in case you do not properly understand the concept.

What is falling action?

What is resolution?

Opinion

After reading all the book. Did you like it or dislike it? Why? Explain your answer.

MEETING PREPARATION # 3

Questions

Write 5 interesting questions about the pages you read. Your questions must be opinion questions that will definitely prompt discussion within your group.

You must also discuss the other activities you complete (character tree, the story elements and your opinion).

During the reading circle, in turn, you will ask each other your questions, which you will all have to answer.

You will record the entire conversation and, using iMovie, you will make a short montage of your best sequences during the discussion.

Your montage should be no longer than 5 minutes and a minimum of 3 minutes.

MEETING PREPARATION # 3

Questions

1

2

3

4

5

