

TEXT IN THE SIMPLE PAST

1st– IDENTIFY the mistakes: – capital letters (2 mistakes)
– punctuation (3 mistakes)
– verb tense (6 mistakes)

2nd– Make the appropriate CORRECTIONS (you can use your BFF p.86)

To help you, underline the verbs and highlight the sequence words.

on a beautiful Sunday afternoon, emily was looking for something to do. First, she go down the stairs and called her friends. No one answered. Disappointed, she decide to go outside. At first, she think it is a good idea to goed for a bicycle ride. However her backyard shed was locked and she do not have the keys. Finally, she walked down her street and met her old friend Dayna. She shouted: "Hey Dayna, it's me

ENRICH THIS TEXT

- 1st– READ the text
- 2nd – UNDERLINE the verbs and make sure they are at the past.
- 3rd – ADD sequences words (use page 21 to 24 of your BFF)
- 4th – FIND synonyms for the words that are repeated frequently.

Marie–Camille took her dog for a walk. Her dog stopped and barked. It was so dark that she could not see what had caught his attention. She decided to continue walking, ignoring what could possibly disturb her dog. Her dog barked again. Irritated, she looked at her dog and said: “What’s wrong?” The dog looked at her and quickly hid behind her. Marie–Camille was started to think there really was something wrong. She saw a big and creepy shadow behind a tree...