

Instructions: Read the text below and modify it to make it as interesting as enriching as possible. You may modify adjectives, verbs, sequence words, dialogues, and sentences structure.

"THE FOOTSTEPS"

Once upon a time, on a gloomy and full moon night of October. There was a girls named Célicia. As soon as, the young girl finish her diner she was feeling very sad because her grandmother died last week. However, Célicia decide to go see her at the Quiet-River City cimetry.

"Bye mom! Bye dad ! I am going to the cimetry." Announce Célicia

"What a weird idea to go in a cimetry on full moon night,"whispers the mom to the dad.

Then, she finally arrived. It's was dark, spooky and very creepy all the stones wore on the ground but only one was up the footsteps man one. There was no flower and it's was unusual . After being there for about 20 minutes the young girls start to hear " footsteps all around her. Little by little, the footsteps and some cold wind was coming closer to her. "Hooooooooooooohhhhhooo!" Whisper somebody.

For this reason, she started to quiver and panic. Then, a long and horrifying silent started. BOOOOOOMMMMMM! Dead body, hand and foot were coming out of the ground. She try to ran as fast as she could but the "zombie" are faster....

Consequently, the dead body attack her she started to scream and protect herself. Sadly nothing works....after all this battle Célicia fall into the ground.....

At this day nobody see her again in fact, if you go into the Quiet-river cemetery at a full moon night you can hear her scream to help. This is a true legend based on real fact.

Célicia was an Olympic champion, she was in the heart ♥ of everyone in this country. Every little girls loved her. She was admirable.....