I told him Papa was fine and handed him the slip my grandpa had given me. They sure are some fine looking pups he said. You'll have to go around to the door. I'm sure my feet never touched the ground as I flew around the building. He unlocked the door, and I stepped in, looking for my dogs. I couldn't see anything but boxes, barrels, old trunks, and some rolls of barbed wire. The kindly stationmaster walked over to one of the boxes. Do you want box and all he asked. I told him I didn't want the box. All I wanted was the dogs. How are you going to carry them he asked I think they're a little too young to follow.
