When the school was finished Steve And Betty immediately went to the secret place because Steve did a surprise for Betty. When they arrived Betty opened her eyes and she said "wow", the surprise was an older house in the countyside, this house was the house of the rich Micheal Bubby, Steve rented the house for the long weekend.

One day later, they remarked something strange around the house, when the night was there they listened strange noises from outside like chainsaw noises or laughing noises. They were very worried about that but they quickly found what it was, a strange guy was outside with a chainsaw and a mask made of human skin.
